

CAYMAN ISLANDS MISSION

- Supporting Word and Sacrament ministry for Safe Harbour Lutheran Church
- Reaching expats who live and work far from their home countries
- Bringing the Word to those vacationing on the island

The Cayman Islands brings up images of gleaming yachts and offshore bank accounts. The affluent British territory is known for its financial and tourism sectors. However, with the extraordinary wealth, vacationing Lutherans in the early 2000s saw a spiritual void. The need to sow an LCMS congregation on Grand Cayman was evident.

The result of their vision was the planting of Safe Harbour Lutheran Church. Since then, the Word and Sacraments have brought a solid foundation to a core congregation of international expatriate workers and Caymanians. A number of snowbirds join the congregation during the winter months while vacationing tourists find refuge throughout the year.

Since its inception, Safe Harbour Lutheran Church has seen several short-term pastors. However, the congregation now has a permanent full-time missionary pastor with years of experience. We pray that this faithful little congregation will thrive, with sound biblical teaching, steadfast support and a firm and gentle hand at the helm.

Lord willing, through the outreach of this congregation, many local Caymanians and visitors will hear His Word, be grafted into His body and carry His message far afield.
